

2. Some things can prevent us from receiving all that we ask for. Can you think of situations where the following reasons might be true?

➤ We misuse what God has already given us.

➤ We neglect to glorify God in the use of what he has given us.

➤ We don't really need it.

➤ It would actually be bad for us.

Getting my attitude right

3. Which of the following reflects your attitude toward your possessions?

I own my possessions.

My possessions own me.

God owns my possessions.

4. According to Deuteronomy 8:17-18, which attitude in question 3 is God looking for? Circle it.

Checking my motivation

Read 1 Chronicles 29:16-18. David, King of Israel, gathered material for the building of the temple in Jerusalem. He gave generously himself, as did the people. This passage is part of his prayer of thanks to God for all that they gave.

5. The King and the people provided the building material but from whose hand does David say it comes? Whom does he acknowledge owns it?
